

Arrow International, Inc.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

December 2015

Arrow International, Inc. and World Wide Press, Inc. announced today an agreement under which Arrow International will acquire the manufacturing operations of World Wide Press.

World Wide Press, based in Great Falls, Montana, has been manufacturing pull tab ticket products for over 42 years! The addition of the World Wide Press pull tab product lines enhances and expands the Arrow family of products.

Arrow International is the world's largest manufacturer of charitable and social gaming solutions. The acquisition of World Wide Press demonstrates Arrow International's commitment to the success of the charitable gaming industry. Arrow International continuously reinvests in the charitable gaming industry through acquisitions, new product development and a best-in-class team.

Thank you for your continued support as we welcome World Wide Press to the Arrow International family of companies.
