

The WIZARD of OZTM Movie Facts!

- The Wizard of Oz is a 1939 musical fantasy film produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.
- Telecasts of the film began in 1956, re-introducing it to the public and eventually becoming an annual tradition, making it one of the most famous films ever made.
- The film was named the most-watched motion picture in history by the Library of Congress.
- It is often ranked among the top 10 Best Movies of All Time in various critics' and popular polls.
- The film is the source of many memorable quotes referenced in modern popular culture. The film has numerous lines in Premiere magazine's 100 Greatest Movie Lines.
 - "Pay no attention to that man behind the curtain." #24
 - "There's no place like home." #11
 - "Toto, I have a feeling we're not in Kansas anymore." #62
 - "I'll get you my pretty, and your little dog, too!" #99

www.arrowinternational.com